1995 awards presented

Bethel Park Chamber of Commerce presented annual awards to three businesses. The 1995 Small Business of the Year Award went to Affordable Decks and Additions, Inc. The 1995 Most Valuable Person of a Small Business honor went to Ron Clark of Clark Construction. The 1995 Special Achievement Award went to the D.L. Richie Paint Recycling Center.

Most Valuable Person

Ron Clark is frequently on site at Clark Construction, located at 3180 Industrial Blvd; at 6 a.m. and is still out on estimates at 8 p.m. He is known by friends and customers as a hard-working, caring man who treats his customers with utmost respect.

Ron was awarded with a $100,000 1994 Sales Plaque from Pella Window Co. (only 6 in the tri-state area) and was Pittsburgh's first certified Pella contractor. Both Ron and his wife, Sue, are active with the BP Haunted Yard, Lynn Sutter Memorial Run, and help raise money for various organizations.
